- Bulletin:            Your patient's names are listed in the church bulletin under the prayers for the sick. Be sure they get a copy. (Help us keep this information current.)
- Substitutes:        Call your coordinator (853-9161) to make any changes in the schedule.
- Patient Update:    Paul & Jean Straub attending church

I look forward to talking with you on Fridays. (Please mention any issues or concerns.)

The Ministry Messenger...

A Newsletter of The Incarnation Ministers to the Sick, January -February, 2009

Greetings Ministers and glad tidings to all;

This joyous season is the opportune occasion to thank each of you for your faithful dedicated service to the sick and homebound brothers and sisters of our Incarnation parish family as you respond to your vocation as Ministers to the Sick.

What a gift you are...

As you represent our church in your sacramental visits to the sick, the comfort and joy that you bring to your patients is beyond measure. You are the epitome of discipleship.

May you be blessed in your journey with the Lord that calls you.

I hope you will enjoy this Christmas meditation from Max Lucado.

It's the season to be jolly because, more than at any other time, we think of Him. More than in any other season, His name is on our lips. And the result? For a few precious hours our heavenly yearnings intermesh and we become a chorus. A ragtag chorus of longshoremen, lawyers, illegal immigrants, housewives, and a thousand other peculiar persons who are banking that Bethlehem's mystery is in reality, a reality. "Come and behold Him" we sing, stirring even the sleepest of shepherds and pointing them toward the Christ-child. For a few precious hours, He is beheld. Christ the Lord. And I can't help but linger on one fanciful thought: If He can do so much with such timid prayers lamely offered in December, how much more could He do if we thought of Him every day?

A Holy and Blessed Christmas,
Deacon Dave Lucchesi

“When did we see you sick Lord, and visit you?” MT. 25:39
