FOSTERING STEWARDSHIP AS A WAY OF LIFE

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 22, 2012

The first disciples of Jesus in today's Gospel left their work and their daily routines to follow him. They abandoned their livelihoods, familiar surroundings and the lives to which they had become accustomed to be closer to him. The good steward finds ways to be removed from what may be a comfortable existence or daily routine in order to serve the Lord more faithfully. All too often, out of fear, insecurity or even selfishness, we refuse to leave the safe cocoon of existence we have created for ourselves in order to hear the Lord's call and be challenged by his Gospel. Perhaps we should reflect on what comforts we need to sacrifice in order to be better stewards of God's compassionate life.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Ordinary" is not always a desirable adjective, Who would not be insulted to receive a thank - you note for your "ordinary birthday gift," or the "ordinary hospitality at the dinner party"? No restaurant advertises its "ordinariness," no car dealer seats a customer at the steering wheel and whispers, "Look how ordinary it is!" Yet here we are in "Ordinary Time." The word carries a different meaning here: it does not mean these days are dull, boring, pedestrian, uninteresting. It means "ordinal," or "numbered" Sundays, a season of the year when we follow the story of Jesus' life and ministry in an ordered way, with each Sunday assigned an ordinal number.

You can amaze your friends with this example of Catholic arithmetic: the "Ordinary Sundays" begin with the last Sunday of Christmas, the Baptism of the Lord, continue until the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, and resume after a cluster of feasts following Pentecost Sunday. The numbers are calculated by counting backwards from the Solemnity of Christ the King, the Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Now you know there is nothing "ordinary" about "Ordinary Time !"

SOCIAL MINISTRY ADVISORY COMMISSION:

Mission Statement: The commission is to be the "Hands of Christ" by empowering parishioners to participate in the Mission of the Church. It serves our parish through enhanced communication and coordination, by creating awareness and building relationships to meet the individual human needs of our Collierville community and in solidarity with the world.

If you would like to learn more about becoming a "Care Minister" and assisting all our Social Ministries as they do their wonderful "works" throughout our parish and Collierville, contact Betty Wallin or Bill Emmerling in the Social Ministry Office, at 850-7374.

GENESIS HOUSE: Catholic Charities program for homeless persons suffering with mental illness, is in desperate need of a new (or like new) commercial freezer. Cost is approximately $3000. The combination of increased community needs and decreased funding makes running old buildings and ongoing challenge. One of the lesser known programs in the Catholic Charities network, Genesis House transitions residents to stable lives with employment and independent housing. Applicants come from diverse referral sources including homeless veterans funded by a contract with the Veterans' Administration. If you can help contact Therese Gustaitis at therese.gustaitis@acc.cdom.org or 901-722-4794.
